

Phil Brown CEng FICE FCIHT
Group Director

I joined JPP in 1998 as a graduate engineer and was invited to join the board of directors in 2011. I lead the infrastructure design teams in JPP Consulting in our Northampton and Manchester offices. I specialise in highway and drainage designs with particular interest in the continued development and improvement of our BIM capabilities.

I am currently Chairman for the Northamptonshire branch committee of the Institution of Civil Engineers and manage our ICE Approved training schemes for staff progressing to membership.

My areas of expertise include highways design, drainage design and project management.
